BRODER ET AL V. BRODER ET AL
Action No. 9703 12949

CASE MANAGEMENT MEETING MINUTES
MAY 7TH, 2003

CASE MANAGEMENT JUDGE: THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE R.P. MARCEAU

APPEARANCES

- Counsel for the Plaintiffs - Elizabeth M. MacInnis
- Counsel for the Defendants - Guy Lacourciere

The Meeting was conducted by conference call

STEPS IN LITIGATION

Ms. MacInnis confirmed that the Conditional Certificate of Readiness had been filed with the Court on April 17th, 2003. The parties are waiting for a trial date.

Mr. Lacourciere confirmed that his clients had elected not to proceed with further Examinations for Discovery.

SAFEKEEPING OF TROPHY

Mr. Lacourciere advised that notwithstanding the recent e-bay listing the deerhead remains in the custody of Don Broder at his home in Sundry. The Defendants are to provide a photograph of the deerhead with either the date imprinted on the photo or with a current copy of the local newspaper in the photograph. Mr. Lacourciere is to discuss with his clients arrangements for some of the Plaintiffs' family members to view the trophy.

C-5

EVALUATION OF DEERHEAD

Justice Marceau directed that Mr. Lacourciere is to obtain two expert opinions on the value of the deerhead. These opinions are to be provided to the Plaintiffs' solicitor.

DEFENDANTS CLAIM FOR EXPENSES

Despite the earlier direction Don Broder has not yet provided particulars of his expenses and income from marketing the deerhead and related material. Justice Marceau reiterated that this must be provided forthwith.

SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS

Mr. Lacourciere advised that Don Broder is prepared to turn over the deerhead to the Plaintiffs if his costs for marketing the deerhead are paid.

NEXT CASE MANAGEMENT MEETING

The next Case Management Meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 16, 2003 at 8:30 a.m. It can proceed by conference call.
